Aries (Mar21/Apr20) Over the weeks ahead you can count on someone special to help you out whenever you get into difficulties. You've always been independent and it may come as a shock to realise how low you feel because a certain person doesn't share the feelings you have for them. What you may not realise is the friend you're telling all your troubles to actually feels the same way about you! Take another look and you will see why they're being so understanding and supportive and why there's no need to feel lonely.

Taurus (Apr21/May21) Can you remember the last time you and your partner really talked to each other? You're ambitious and focused but what is this doing to your relationships? Misunderstandings between you and your loved ones will have a lot to do with the amount of time you're putting into your independent concerns. They want to share, have fun with you and enjoy your company. These next few weeks give your lover and others who matter the love and affection they crave from you. It will make all the difference to the time you spend together.

Gemini (May22/June21) Ask for help if you're struggling with anything. You're versatile and talented but you won't get anywhere without proper training and qualifications. Join a class or sign up on a training course to get the disciplined kind of practice you need. Even if it means sacrificing your evenings and weekends, over the months ahead, you will be glad you did so, in the future. Loved ones will support you when they see how serious you are in your intentions. Big material and emotional rewards are on the way.

Cancer (June22/July23) Money matters will tend to be rather peculiar over the weeks ahead. You can't seem to make any sense of your current bank balance and this may be because your partner forgets to mention an unexpected bonus they receive that helps to boost your finances. It's a time to bring a private dream out into the open and to discuss future plans with loved ones. Talks will be more productive than you may have been expecting. Single? Don't let an aggressive admirer pressure you into making a date.

Leo (July24/Aug23) If you're single and looking for love, you're trying too hard to find your dream lover. Over the weeks ahead, whenever you're introduced to new people, relax and just be yourself. This will be all that's needed to attract a certain special someone's attention. If you are in a committed relationship, your sexual appetite is lusty and strong and your partner will have no complaints. These next few weeks go with the mood of the moment, encourage others to do the same and the rest will come naturally.

Virgo (Aug24/Sept23) Some good news to do with your career could change your future prospects. Everything's going well for you now but don't rest on your laurels just yet. Living up to the image you're trying to make of yourself will take time and effort over the weeks ahead. A romantic relationship could also use some work. It will take more than one apology if you've upset your partner recently. Whatever the reason they want to see you mean it when you say you're sorry so be sincere.

Libra (Sept24/Oct23) You can't change a person's opinions or attitude no matter how you try. You might wish someone could be more open minded but it's something they have to work on, not you. You're better off channelling your energy into things you can change such as areas of your own life that need some improvement. Where there are problems, work on strategies to control these over the weeks ahead. They may not totally disappear but it will help you feel more in control. Single? Lucky stars abound and romance is on the cards.

Scorpio (Oct24/Nov22) Domestic activities and relations within the home are highly favoured these next few weeks. If there's anything you've been planning on starting in that area, get started while you are in the right mood. If you've been dreaming of dating a new neighbour, make your move now. Already in a relationship? Your partner's willing to do anything for you so be sure to make the most of it. Over the next four weeks it will be spontaneous ideas and actions that will keep the passion pulsing.

Sagittarius (Nov23/Dec21) Spreading gossip could have unfortunate consequences over the weeks ahead which is why you should listen but be careful about what you say. Some rumours will provide you with useful information but it is not for you to pass it on. People need to know you are trustworthy, especially your employer or other authority figures. Very soon you will be made an offer that will seem like a dream come true. In the meantime, stay focused on your own affairs and keep your thoughts to yourself!

Capricorn (Dec22/Jan20) You're so confident and professional in all your dealings that no-one is going to argue with you! Over the weeks ahead expect to see good results through any dealings you have with estate agents, loan companies and any other parties involved in property and financial transactions. With everyone being so cooperative, take the opportunity to sit down with your partner to plan a budget and trim down any extravagant spending. Household accounts will need close attention now and over the month to come.

Aquarius (Jan21/Feb19) Meetings and discussions with officials will be successful, these next few weeks. Ideas flow and your quick grasp of any new directives will highlight your leadership qualities. Friends and colleagues will be turning to you for advice and guidance, demonstrating their confidence in you. Something will soon happen that will be totally unexpected; this will convince you of your aptitude in a special area. Your high spirits rub off on friends and your partner who will support you in all you do.

Pisces (Feb20/Mar20) Single? Someone you're destined to meet over the month ahead will know how to push your pleasure button. Complications could arise when an old lover tries to creep back into your life. If they get the attention they crave they won't be a bother. If you don't want them back, expect the weeks ahead to be fraught with tension; they're bent on causing trouble! Be firm with yourself and don't let anyone bully or intimidate you. Break away from people or activities that dampen your spirits.
